Lily and the Polar Bears

ff

FABER & FABER

One day, Lily was playing on the beach with her grandpa when she spotted something in the distance . . .

POLAR BEARS!

Lots of polar bears!
All floating on pieces of melting ice.

“Hullo!” they said as they clambered onto the shore.
“We’re very sorry to bother you but our homes have melted and we’ve nowhere to stay. Can you help us?”

Lily thought for a moment. “Well, we do have a special room for guests - and a tree house!
Come with us!”
